HUNTER SHOT AT NEW BERLIN

ACCIDENT.

Elmer Suffecool Receives Dangerous Wound.

COMPANION FELL

And Gun Was Discharged-Load of Shot Struck the Young Man in Left Thigh Dr. Schiltz, of Canton, Summoned -Condition Remains Serious.

A distressing hunting accident occurred near New Berlin Thursday morning, resulting in the serious injury of Elmer Suffeccol. He and Robret McKinney had started out hunting early in the morning and were going through the Willaman orchard, when McKinney, who was about 15 feet in treat, slipped and fell upon the frozen ground. His gun was discharged, the entire load of shot lodging in Suffecool's left thigh near the hip. The injured man dropped to the ground with began calling for help. Jackson Miller, who was driving along the road at the time, went to the injured man's assistance. He was taken into a buggy and taken to New Berlin. No doctor could be secured there and Dr. C. F. Schiltz of Canton was summoned.

When he arrived it was hours after the man had been shot and the wound had swelled badly and was full of clotted blood. Dr. Schiltz proceeded to cleanse the wound and remove the shot which was done with great difficulty. Portions of the man's clothing had been carried deep into the flesh. When A Lot Were Left on Hands of Dealers the doctor arrived the patient was in a state of collapse from cold and the shock and it was feared at first that he would not recover.

A nurse from the Aultman hospital was sent for and after the wound had not been ascertained whether or not the bone was injured.

shown great remorse. No blame at- fowl was peddled from door to door taches to him, as the shooting was and offered for sale as low as 17 cents. purely accidental.

CUBA PROPOSES TO ISSUE PAPER MONEY

Failure to Negotiate Proposed Loan of $35,000,000 to Pay Outstanding War Claims is the Cause.

Havana, Cuba, Nov. 26-The government having confessed its inability to negotiate the proposed loan of $35,-000,000 with which to pay all outstanding war claims, the congressional committe on war debt, through its chairman, has suggested that an issue of paper currency be floated, to be on a par with gold and receivable for customs and all taxes, the issue to be mifficiently large to meet all war claims, including the proposed list.

It is further suggested that a na-tional bank law be passed authorizing the deposit of all of the outstanding bonds of the Cuban Junta and the new debentures of the republic as collateral for paper currency to be issued by banks desirous of taking advantage of the law and becoming national banks.

DRESSED TURKEYS WENT BEGGING

and They Were Peddled About the Streets Thursday.

It now appears that poultry dealers -assisted by the newspapers-worked up a scarel " of turkeys (and, incidentbeen dressed the condition of the pa- ally, the price of same,) in a degree tient became more encouraging. It has not warranted by the facts. On Wednesday, dealers sold turkeys as high as 24 cents a pound, and were fearful that they could not supply the demand. On Suffecced is 22 years old and single. They could not supply the demand. On McKinney, who did the shooting, has Some dealers who had large stocks and held out for top-notch prices will have to resort to cold storage or low prices to dispose of them. The scarcity of poultry about Thanksgiving time has been a well worked "scare" for the past few years, but, in local markets: at least, it appears to have overreached this year.

ROBERT J. HALE, A GOV-ERNMENT CLERK

Murders His Wife and Commits Suicide.

IN DANGER OF ARREST

Left Letters Asking Forgiveness for Being a Degenerate and Owning That He Had Been False to His Wife-Crime Discovered Through Strange Actions of Hale's Dog.

Washington, Nov. 26. - Robert J. Hale, aged 45 years, employed at the government printing office, shot and killed his wife instantly today and then blew out his own brains. He had posed as a cousin of Margaret Hale, the young girl clerk who died suddenly yesterday at the Brentwood, M. D., sanitarium, and for the causing of whose death Dr. Joseph C. Ohlendorf, Letters left on Hale's dining table were directed to his wife and to the public, one asking forgiveness for being a degenerate, and the other telling how false he had been to his wife. It is believed that after writing them that he decided to kill his wife. The authorities were preparing to place Hale under arrest.

The suicide was a man of some means. He was from Scranton, Pa. and had lived here fifteen years. His wife was Miss Fannie Reardon, whose home was near Elmira, N. Y.

In the note to his wife he said: 'To Fannie, the best woman in the world, unfortunately married to a degenerate: Think kindly of me some times, as there were few virtues that were mine. Have my remains cremated that there will be neither name nor remembrance. Find all your papers in tin box. Collect insurance from National Union and Equitable Life. Find building association book in vest pocket. Collect money from typographical union-$310.

R. J. Hale." (Signed) The other note reads:

"I have disgraced; I have disgraced my wife, the dearest, best and most noble woman in the world. I write this that all may know she was not to blame in any way, shape or manner for my perfidity. She was too grand; too noble and too honorable, and if had done as she had always wanted me to, the end would not be as it isdeath and disgrace to me. (Signed) "Robert J. Hale."

The crime was discovered through the strange actions of his dog "Bijou," his constant companion for years. Inin Mrs. Hale's left temple. The ball or Morgan. had passed through the head and Hale had shot himself in the right temple. Mrs. Hale's body had not moved an inch from the position it was in when she was shot, while his body had fallen partly out of the bed, and the blood had streamed almost the entire length of the room over the matting. The revolver the husband had used was in the bed between the two bodies.
